In assuming the duties of editor and publisher of THE TRIBUNK, we are fully aware of the responsibilities that will devolve upon us, and we shall labor earnestly to perform them to the satisfaction of our patrons and readers. The object of our labors will be to publish a good, newsy, local paper, one that will chronicle the events of the neighborhood and that will be an advertisement of the town of McCook, and Red Willow and adjoining counties. We shall always approve the good actions of men in political and other positions of trust, and we shall not hesitate at any time to condemn and expose the wrong doer. We shall keep our columns clear from all objectionable language, and hope to make it, as it should be, an educator in the family. To our fellowjournalists in the valley we extend a friendly hand, and if they will meet us half way our columns will not be filled up with personal bickerings. To the people of McCook and vicinity we only ask a patronage worthy of our merits, and add that if the patronage be liberal, it will only be a greater incentive for us to work the harder for their

A PASTORAL LETTER.

To the Members and Friends of the Prot. Episcopal Church.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD:-You have all learned by this time that the Bishop has appointed me to take charge of the missions in the Republican Valley. I have made several mis sionary tours through this extensive field, which I hope will be profitable to the church and myself. I have made a thorough investigation into the state of religion in this large missionary district, and I can realize the need of the Church -the Bride of Christ-and vital Christianity in this section of the Diocese.

I have come here a perfect stranger to $100, but makes little changes in the to you all and I am glad to say that every person has treated me with utmost kindness and respect and I hope that my visits through the Valley will be the means of doing good to my fellow men. I know that this portion of our dear Lord's vineyard has had many dis conragements and disadvantages since His Mystical Body, "the Church which he purchased with His own blood," was first presented in your midst; but now, my beloved brethren, I ask you in the name of God for your co-operation in the work of establishing the historic church of our blessed Redeemer in this beautiful town. If I do not get your sympawill be used largely as currency, but thy and love at all times I need never the fact that they will become invalid begin my work among you as a minister of Jesus Christ, "but I am persuaded better things of you, my beloved brethren, even the things which accompany your salvation."

I have every reason to believe that if we all work together "in the unity of the Spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteon-ne-s of life," a good church can be established here at no distant day. Let us, then, show to the world the power of the blessed Spirit who dwelleth in us. by earnest, united effort, that no part of God's work may suffer loss at this period of transition. Let us stand fast in one Spirit, with one mind striving together for "the faith which was once

As I am ordained a minister of Jesus Christ for the care of souls, I desire to say to you and to all people, that whenever any person is in "trouble, need, sickness, or in any other adversity," I Ice Cold Lemonade, shall be ready to minister to their wants, or in whatever way I can make myself useful to the Church of God and the temporal and eternal welfare of His people.

For this part of our dear Lord's vineyard I shall ever pray that it may be watered with the Divine blessing. and continue to bear fruit to the praise and glory of the Church's exhalted and blessed head. And may the "God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great shepherd of all sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work, to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

I am, your faithful servant, STUART CROCKETT. McCook, Sept. 4, 1883.

As Others See Us.

Last Saturday, ye junior editor stepped aboard the "Cannon Ball" and made a hasty business trip to the famous city of McGook. Passing up the Valley at the rate of 45 miles per hour. we noticed many marks of improvement since we were up the Valley, several years ago. At Rep. City they are building a fine church, and at Oxford we noticed many new buildings in the A one half, one third or the whole of course of construction, and at Cambridge many fine brick buildings, while McCook, a division station, with her depot, the magic city of the far west, is doing her best to put on metropolitan airs. We called on G. L. Laws and C. F. Babcock, the gentlemanly officials The No. 8 Washington hand press for of the new land office, and found them crowded with work; we also dropped in January 1st 1884 on the TRIBUNE man and chatted until the train came thundering along on which we started for home, and as the train does not stop at Franklin going east we tried to get the conductor to slow up and let us jump off, but the train rushed by at the rate of 60 miles per hour.-Republican Valley Echo.
